

Varieties Registers

Fruit plants and vine

Paolo Giorgetti

Ministero delle politiche agricole alimentari e forestali
D. G. dello Sviluppo Rurale
DISR V – Servizio fitosanitario centrale, produzioni vegetali

Banja Luka - 18th March 2015

NEW VARIETY / CLONE

DESCRIPTION

COMMITTEE

CONSERVATING AND PROPAGATING

CHECKS

VARIETIES REGISTER

Conservation of primary sources

Primary source Or Nuclear stocks

in a repository under conditions ensuring freedom from re-infection
(insect proof screenhouse)

Responsibility of the breeder

Conservation for premultiplication

primary source

pre-basic

in a repository

Responsability of Public or private institutions officially recognized from MiPAAF

Conservation Centres for Premultiplication working in the Italian certification scheme

List of primary sources recognized

Species	Varieties	Primary sources
Apricot	114	126
Cherry sweet / sour	53 / 12	64 / 14
Nectarine / Peach and Clingstone	115 / 146	127 / 163
Almond	39	66
European Plum / Japanese Plum	27 / 72	35 / 95
Walnut	10	10
Apple	157	218
Pear	48	104
Orange / Hybrids / Clementine / Other	30 / 16 / 13 / 34	32 / 18 / 17 / 34
Strawberry	85	85
Olive	197	220
Citrus rootstock	12	12
Stone fruit rootstock	55	76
Pome fruit rootstock	32	60
Total	1.167	1.576

Registration of vine variety

Registration of Clone

National Register of Vine Varieties

Number of varieties and clones officially registered

Sec. I – Wine varieties	491	clones 1.224 (Sangiovese 113)
Sec. II – Table varieties	145	clones 44 (Schiava grossa 19)
Sec. III – Varieties for special purpose	2
Sec. IV – Rootstock varieties	45	clones 161 (1103-Paulsen 24)
Sec. V – Varieties intended to propagating material production*	9	clones 13

* Varieties of foreign countries, don't intended for wine production in Italy

Thanks for your attention